

F CLARINET

BASSET HORN

"The little bass"

How can we not think of Mozart and his Requiem when we consider this instrument, which was also a favourite of Strauss and Massenet?

The Henri SELMER Paris basset-horn has been designed with deep respect for the traditions and characteristic sound of the basset-horn. Indeed, this instrument reflects Selmer's exceptional craftsmanship, and is distinguished by the choice to maintain authenticity by allowing playing with a B♭ clarinet mouthpiece. This unique feature offers musicians the distinctive sound of the basset-horn,

The meticulous design of the SELMER Paris basset horn clarinet body highlights the exceptional quality of the selected grenadilla wood. Each instrument is crafted with artisanal precision, guaranteeing perfect ergonomics and immediate response.

The rich, deep sound of the Henri SELMER Paris basset horn clarinet, combined with the possibility of playing with a B♭ clarinet mouthpiece, makes it an exceptional choice for professional musicians and enlightened amateurs alike. This unique instrument testifies to Selmer's commitment to innovation while preserving musical heritage, offering an authentic and incomparable musical experience.

TECHNICAL FEATURES

Key: F

Bore diameter: 15.8 mm

Pitch: 442 Hz

Range: to low C

System: Boehm (21 keys)

Materials: body in grenadilla wood, silver plated brass bell, silver plated nickel silver keywork, leather pads

Included:

2 necks, B♭ Concept mouthpiece with ligature and cap, care kit, non-slip adjustable peg, Light basset horn case.

